B.C. Coastal Discovery

Breathtaking scenery and incredible landscape

DAY 1: Toronto to Kamloops, BC

From your joining point today, you will be taken at Pearson International Airport where we will join our air flight to Kelowna, BC. Upon your arrival in Kelowna, you will then enjoy a relaxing short Coach drive to Kamloops, BC. Arriving at your hotel and the evening will be yours to prepare for the next morning.

DAY 2: Williams Lake, BC

Breakfast, each morning will be a sure way of starting your day off right. Today we make our way to Williams Lake, we visit the Secwepemc Museum and Heritage Park and experience the rich cultural history of the Secwepemc people of the interior Shuswap group. Their attractive museum exhibits incorporate the oral history and legends along with historical photographs, illustrations and artifacts. Then, it's off to Williams Lake along the scenic Fraser River Canyon. (B)

DAY 3: Bella Coola, BC

Journeying to Bella Coola is an adventure. It's a full day of travel today as we venture west to the coast. The Bella Coola Valley is home to friendly communities nestled in the Coast Mountains, with plenty of waterfalls, scenery and wildlife. The Bella Coola River winds along the valley floor through settlements and farms. The town of Bella Coola sits at the end of the valley where the ocean swallows up the land in a tidal dance that is ancient and predictable. (B)

DAY 4: Bella Coola, BC

The Norwegians, who had originally immigrated to farms in the Valley, found commercial fishing more lucrative. They and the Nuxalk caught spring and sockeye salmon, and canneries were built along the inlet and at the mouth of the Bella Coola River. A three-hour tour includes lunch of barbecued salmon and time to explore the remnants of a once-prosperous industry and the tiny community that was home to some of the employees. Reminders of the early days are the square-timbered, hand-adzed log houses and barns as well as the place names. In the afternoon we visit the Norwegian Heritage House, which is typical of a Scandinavian home from this era. Come and join us tonight for Dinner and you will have the chance to meet new friends. (B,L,D)

DAY 5: Port Hardy, BC, Vancouver Island

Today may be the high point of the whole tour for some people as we board the BC Ferry service for a 13 hour sailing along the beautiful channels and coast of British Columbia's mid coast. Lunch and dinner will be enjoyed aboard the ferry today, so have a relaxing day, with time to read, view the scenery, watch for marine life and enjoy the bracing sea air as we arrive into Port Hardy, on the northern end of Vancouver Island this evening. (B,L,D)

DAY 6: Campbell River, BC

A short distance south of Port Hardy is the community of Port McNeil, and just south of Port McNeil, is the photogenic village of Telegraph Cove. Starting out as a telegraph station in the early 1900's it grew with a fish saltier and lumber mill. Many of the village's buildings were built on stilts over the water and still stand today. While here we'll visit the Whale Interpretive Centre. Then we continue south to Campbell River and visit the Campbell River Museum which features a brilliant display of First Nations and early life on the coast. Arriving at our hotel in Campbell River, the evening will be yours to explore or relax. (B)

DAY 7: Vancouver, BC

We continue our coastal adventure by travelling south to Nanaimo and catching
