We cross the Bluegrass state of Kentucky with its opulent horse farms on our way to Tennessee. This afternoon we arrive in the area where Dolly Parton spent her childhood, Pigeon Forge, Tennessee. Great shows and beautiful scenery abound through-out this area, with the Smoky Mountains as the back drop. Tonight we attend the Black Bear Jamboree. (B,D)

DAY 4: Nashville, Tennessee

This morning a city tour of Music City U.S.A., allows us to learn about the city that has attracted thousands seeking fame in the Country Music Industry. In the afternoon we visit the famous Country Music Hall of Fame, which opened their brand new home in 2002. This beautiful building is an incredible tribute to the history of Country Music. This evening enjoy the Grand Ole Opry Show. (B)

DAY 5: Memphis, Tennessee

A casual morning including breakfast, before our departure from Nashville. We will travel southwest past Hurricane Mills then on to Memphis, Tennessee, a city with a reputation for music. It was on Beale Street that music legend W.C. Handy created "the Blues", an original American art form which was a blend of mournful ballads sung by slaves and the Dixieland jazz of New Orleans. Upon arrival there will be a city tour including a visit to the Peabody Hotel to witness the famous Duck March. Then we visit Graceland mansion, the home of the late Elvis Presley, the "King of Rock and Roll". Our tour will show us several of the rooms in Graceland mansion, the racquetball building, the trophy room which houses Elvis' many awards, gold records, jewelry and personal momentos. (B)

DAY 6 - 8: Branson, Missouri

Our journey today takes us past Little Rock, Arkansas enroute to Branson, America's hottest entertainment destination, where we spend the next three nights. These days will be filled with excitement as we enjoy Branson and the Ozark Mountain area. We have included admission to three music shows during our stay, and have also allowed you free time to see more of your favourite entertainers on your own. The three included shows in Branson will be the Red Skelton Show, Veteran entertainer Tom Mullica magically transforms himself into the comedy genius of Red Skelton live on stage, the Hughes Brothers Show, voted best vocalist group, entering their 13th year in Branson and the Shoji Tabuchi Show, Branson's Number 1 show! We'll also enjoy Ozark Mountain Country "Duck Style". Ride the Ducks offers an entirely different approach to sightseeing as we travel on water and land. A farewell to Branson Dinner is included. (B,D)
